CI Arb accepts payment in instalments. Please contact the Education and Training team for further details on the payments to be made through instalments.

COURSE REGISTRATION FEE

The course registration fee includes registration onto the course, tuition, access to study materials and support and entry to the first attempt of the assessment(s).

This applies to all courses except for the Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration, where study materials have to be bought separately by the candidate.

RESIT FEE

The resit fee is charged per assessment, and includes a further attempt of an assessment should a candidate be unsuccessful in a previous attempt.

POSTPONEMENT FEE

The postponement fee is an administration charge of 10% + VAT of the course fee should a candidate wish to transfer registration of a course to a later date.

The postponement fee is an administration charge of 50% + VAT of the assessment fee should a candidate wish to transfer registration of an assessment to a later date.

CANCELLATION FEE

All cancellations to registration of courses must be received in writing to education@ciarb.org. Cancellation charges apply as follows:

- If a registration is cancelled within 1-28 days, 100% of the course fee + VAT will be due and payable.
- If a registration is cancelled after 28 days, 50% of the course fee + VAT will be due and payable.

If the Institute has to cancel a course, candidates will be provided with a full refund or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course.

ADMINISTRATIVE CHECK

A candidate may request an administrative check if they feel they have been unsuccessful in an examination or assignment and there is reason to believe that there may have been a clerical or administrative error in computing or notifying the correct result.

APPEAL

A candidate may request an appeal if they feel they have been unfairly treated through one of the following means:

- Unfair consideration of the mitigating circumstances;
- Unfair practice in the conduct of the examination, assignment or assessment process;

- Unfair conduct by an assessor or in application of the assessment process.

Candidates who expect to pass an examination, assignment or assessment or consider that the preparation they carried out to warrant a pass are insufficient grounds to request an appeal. An administration charge of £375 + VAT is payable by the candidate.
