

Natalia Gulyaeva FCIArb

Office managing partner
Hogan Lovells CIS

Natalia Gulyaeva FCIArb is an office managing partner of Hogan Lovells CIS and is famous for victories in complex tech and data disputes (litigation and arbitration) and for efficiency in coordinating cross-border disputes.

Natalia is admitted for practice in Russia and England & Wales and acts as both counsel and arbitrator. Natalia is praised for “her business sense and clear management style” and is defined as “creative, flexible and focused attorney” by The Legal 500, Chambers & Partners, and Russia’s largest national ranking Pravo.ru-300.

Natalia is the winner of 2015-2018 “Client Choice Award” and Euromoney’s “European Women in Business Law” Awards 2015. Natalia is among top 250 Women in IP by IP Stars in 2018-2020.

Natalia is a tutor in the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center and Associate Professor at the Higher School of Economics (Moscow).