An Introduction

- Arbitra was founded to address a gap in the dispute resolution market.
- When lawyers and law firms are seeking a neutral, the Management Team at Arbitra works with you to provide the best-suited options informed by an expert view of the market alongside strategic tools.
- Advice on the selection of members is complimentary.
- Arbitra is here to ensure you look great in front of your client, acting as a point of contact between you and the arbitrator throughout the dispute.
- As a member, Arbitra provides all the services to which I was accustomed before I chose to leave “Big Law” and go independent; this includes a range of empowering and supportive management initiatives, allowing me to focus on the substance of my disputes as arbitrator.

What is Arbitra

A conflict free member organization for leading independent arbitrators and mediators.

The Management Team ensures the members' practices are run smoothly, efficiently, and proactively.

How Arbitra assists law firms and counsel

- Arbitra has real strength in depth in multiple jurisdiction and sectors, coupled with a diverse membership of established, high-profile practitioners and the brightest upcoming talent.
- The model delivers an arbitrator selection and management component for every dispute, from beginning to end.
- Arbitra has brought a level of client-centricity to an often-inaccessible field. As such, Arbitra has become a valued partner with the world's leading law firms.
- In a post-pandemic world, getting to know the right team isn't as simple as meeting face-to-face. So, Arbitra has been steadily building its industry knowledge and insight, acting as a trusted source to lawyers who seek their guidance on emerging talent.

How Arbitra assists its members

- Arbitra provides management services to member neutrals so that members can focus on the substantive aspects of acting as neutrals.
- Arbitra is flexible in terms of what management services it provides, depending on the needs of the member.
- Arbitra is a global network of independent neutrals. What each member operates independently, Arbitra's global network and London headquarters are an asset to members in addition to the management services provided.
- Arbitra also connects members with others in the international dispute resolution community for potential opportunities to serve as a neutral, speak at an event, or participate in an event that Arbitra is organizing or co-sponsoring.

Who are members of Arbitra?

- Members are arbitrators, mediators and other independent professionals in the arbitration field from across the globe. They have a diverse skillset and draw from different regions.
- Close to 75% of Arbitra members are CIArb members, many of whom are CIArb Fellows.
- Many if not all of Arbitra's members share Arbitra's commitment to supporting diversity initiatives and have the opportunity to contribute to Arbitra's efforts in this area.
- Arbitra recently celebrated its one-year anniversary – so watch this space as Arbitra grows and its membership expands!

Management Team

The management team offers unrivalled industry experience, providing unparalleled, in-depth knowledge of Arbitra members and their expertise. Every individual team member prides themselves on being responsive, trusted in the market and highly knowledgeable.
