

Evolution of Arbitrator Conflicts and Disclosures

30 October 2025 | Starts 18:00 GMT | Hybrid event

Event overview:

This annual event, co-organised by Ciarb London Branch and the LCIA, is hosted this year by Osborne Clarke as a hybrid event. Each year, the event explores a different theme at the forefront of international arbitration. Our panellists will lead a discussion on the very important topic of arbitrator conflicts and disclosures. Our speakers represent the various perspectives involved from counsel, to arbitrator, to institution, and arbitration thought leadership. We will look at the current status of these issues and then will explore whether and how things should change in order to adapt to our fast-changing world bearing in mind everything from geopolitics to the use of AI.

Format:

In-person at Osborne Clarke, One London Wall,
Barbican, London EC2Y 5EB and online

Registration:

To book your place, click here
or scan the QR code

Agenda:

18:00–18.25 Registration and networking

18:25–18.30 Introduction

Speaker:

Robert Price, Latham and Watkins, Ciarb Branch Chair

18:30–19:30 Session:

Moderator:

Paul Kinninmont, Freeths, solicitor and arbitrator

Panellists:

- Artem Doudko, Osborne Clarke, solicitor and arbitrator
- Jamie Harrison, LCIA, Deputy Director General
- Crina Baltag, professor and arbitrator
- Clare Ambrose, Twenty Essex, barrister and arbitrator

19:30–19:35 Closing remarks

Speaker:

Jamie Harrison, LCIA Deputy Director General

19:35–21:00 Networking drinks

Queries:

For any questions about this event, please contact Emily McLaughlin at events@lcia.org.