Welcome letter

Dear Candidates,

This Diploma is designed to give you an in-depth understanding of international commercial arbitration law and practice, equipping you with the skills required to develop your career as an arbitrator.

Our faculty comprises internationally recognised experts, and there will be considerable opportunities to network with other candidates and peers, allowing you to build professional connections.

Ciarb's Diploma, delivered in person at Christ Church, a college at the University of Oxford, is the gold standard in the industry. Highlights include the Fireside Chat, the Arbitral Workshop, the Institutional Round Table, where you gain insight into institutional rules and practices, and an exploration of AI in Arbitration.

Upon successfully passing the Practice and Procedure and the Award Writing examinations, you will be awarded a Global Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration by Ciarb. You will then be able to apply to become a Ciarb Fellow, a globally recognised post-nominal.

I encourage you to join us on this exciting learning opportunity.

Dr. Crina Baltag FCI Arb
Diploma Director

Meet the Diploma's Director

Dr. Crina Baltag FCIArb is a globally recognised arbitration and dispute resolution practitioner.

She is also an attorney at law and an academic with over 20 years of extensive practice in international dispute resolution, private, and public international law.

Crina has been appointed as presiding, sole and co-arbitrator in numerous arbitrations under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC Arbitration Institute), the Finland Arbitration Institute (FAI), Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC), and the Center for Arbitration and Mediation of the Chamber of Commerce Brazil-Canada (CAM-CCBC).

She has acted as expert and counsel in various international commercial and investment arbitrations. She has also practiced as counsel, specialising in commercial and disputes, focusing on construction, energy and natural resources projects, financial transactions, intellectual property, and foreign investments.

Crina is the managing editor of Kluwer Arbitration Blog, and an Associate Professor in International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution at Queen Mary University of London.

Diploma structure

The Diploma follows the arbitral process from beginning to end. You will be involved in interactive sessions from day one.

Typical day

Session 1:

Duties and powers of the arbitral tribunal. Liability of arbitrators.

Session 2:

Role of tribunal secretaries.

Session 3:

Commencement of arbitration, request for arbitration and answer, terms of reference/appointment.

Session 4:

Managing the arbitration process: communications, preliminary meetings, interlocutory matters. Jurisdiction and admissibility.

Session 5:

Interactive workshop: Drafting Procedural Order Number 1.

Session 6:

AI in the arbitral process.

This Diploma includes a full-day workshop led by a leading arbitral institution, where you will gain valuable insight into that institution's arbitral rules and processes and learn how to win an institutional appointment.

Diploma assessment

Part 1 Assessment: Law, Practice and Procedure of International Commercial Arbitration

Candidates must complete three assessments:

1. An assignment completed during the Diploma
2. A dissertation proposal (up to 300 words) on an arbitration-related topic
3. A final dissertation (up to 4,000 words), submitted two months after the dissertation proposal is approved

The final dissertation is due by 5 November 2026 and constitutes 80% of the overall mark.

Part 2 Assessment: Law of Obligations

Candidates need to demonstrate expertise on the common law and civil law of contract tort.

Candidates must pass a multiple-choice online exemption test before starting the final assessment.

Candidates will be given a reference workbook and a mock assessment before taking the exemption test.

Ciarb Fellows do not need to complete the exemption test.

Part 3 Assessment: Evidence and Award Writing of International Arbitration

Candidates are required to submit an award.

The assessment is split into two stages.

Stage one:

The documents in the case are released 10 days before the assessment start date. They are sufficient to enable the candidate to review the nature of the case and the likely legal problems.

Candidates should consider the recitals they intend to include and the relevant law.

Stage two:

This is the equivalent of the hearing stage. It includes an extract from the candidate's (the arbitrator's) notebook.

This records the oral evidence and arguments the arbitrator has heard, as well as any other relevant documents.

From the evidence, candidates must make their findings of fact. Different candidates will no doubt make different findings.

When candidates have made their findings of fact, they can write the award. It must be a final award that reflects the issues they have chosen to focus on.

Stage two will be available for five days from the assessment start date.

Within these five days, candidates have 48 consecutive hours from the time they access the stage two documents to submit the award.

The arbitral award can be up to 10,000 words.

*I loved this course.
The diversity of the students, the engaging discussions we've had.
We have 22 countries represented in one room
and learning from each other is phenomenal.*

Patrick Turinawe,
2024 candidate

Candidates will be marked on technical and judicial merit:

Technical merit:

counts as 40% towards the overall mark.

Judicial merit:

counts as 60% towards the overall mark.

Candidates must achieve 70% in both the technical and judicial merits and 70% overall to pass this assessment.

The detailed elements of each technical and judicial merits will be made available with stage one. Results are sent to candidates 12 weeks from the deadline date of the submission.
