

Virtual Module 1 Law, Practice and Procedure in International Arbitration

What is the aim of the course?

To provide candidates with detailed knowledge of the procedural elements of International (i.e. non-domestic) Arbitration, using legislation based on the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Model Law, regional Arbitration law, and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules to enable them to understand and participate in such proceedings.

The course focuses on legal principles, process, practice and procedure in International Arbitration. It is therefore valuable for anyone wishing to understand this topic generally, for example as a party, party representative or witness. It is also an essential requirement for qualification as a Fellow of Ciarb, and for those who aim to practise as an International Arbitrator.

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course candidates will be able to:

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered over a period of three months, with a combination of private study and virtual tutorials.

The course date advertised is the start date of the course when candidates will be required to start their private study of reading NOT when they attend tutorials. The virtual tutorial dates are listed on the Course Schedule.

Will the Virtual Tutorials be recorded?

Due to data protection laws, we do not guarantee that virtual tutorials will be recorded. Ciarb is committed to supporting candidates to be successful in their courses and to achieve successful outcomes in their assessments. We therefore strongly recommend candidates attend all scheduled virtual tutorials.

Our virtual tutorials are designed to be interactive teaching and learning experiences taught by Senior Tutors who will assess your individual needs. Candidates therefore will be at a disadvantage if they do not attend all virtual tutorials.

How will I be assessed?

This assessment is completed via LearnADR, Ciarb's online learning platform. Candidates will be given 48 consecutive hours within a 5-day window to submit their answers online. Candidates must achieve a minimum overall mark of 65% to pass the assessment.

The assessment will be split into 2 parts:

Part One: Is a compulsory case study exercise with a number of questions that candidates will be required to answer worth 40 marks

Part Two: Consists of five questions, candidates are required to select and answer three questions worth 60 marks.

The assessment fee of £174 inclusive of VAT is already included in the course fee. Candidates do not have to register and pay for the assessment separately.

Results are dispatched to candidates normally twelve weeks from the deadline date of the submission. Candidates will be informed of any delays.

Please note: Success in the assessment is directly linked to tutorial attendance. Please ensure you attend all of the tutorials, and engage with the tutor. The tutorials are your opportunity to ask the tutor any questions you may have and gain further understanding on any course topics you feel you need further clarity on.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no pre-requisite entry requirements for this course.

Candidates enrolling on any Ciarb course/assessment are required to ensure that their command of spoken and written English is adequate for the course/assessment for which they have applied. Ciarb does not require any evidence of this standard prior to enrolment on a course/assessment. However, it is the candidate's responsibility to ensure their English language skills are at a Professional Working Proficiency level, in order to meet the required standard when enrolling for any Ciarb course/assessment.

It is recommended that candidates have achieved a standard that is, as a minimum, equivalent to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) level 7 or a score of 94-101 in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) system. (Please note that we do not require an official IELTS or TOEFL result).

Please contact the British Council for further details on how to improve your English skills: <https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/>.

What is the course fee and what does it include?

The course fee is £600 inclusive of VAT. The fee includes registration on the course, access to virtual classrooms and study materials.

Kindly be advised that the process for scheduling assessments does not require a separate booking. Additionally, it is imperative to be mindful of the specified deadlines associated with the assessment.

How do I register for the course?

To register for the course, go to www.ciarbcaribbean.org, download the Registration Form and submit it by email to the Course Administrator at info@ciarbcaribbean.org no later than closing date for registration stated on the Registration Form.

Upon successful registration on the course, candidates will receive confirmation they are provisionally booked on the course and payment instructions will be issued. Upon payment of the course fee, joining instructions and course materials will be made available to the candidates approximately 2 weeks before the course start date, and candidates will receive an email with their username and password.

What is Ciarb's policy on cancellation of courses?

Ciarb reserves the right to cancel the course or change the date or content of programmes and the names of speakers, lecturers and tutors. Candidates will be provided with adequate notice of cancellation or any change. If Ciarb has to cancel a course, candidates will be provided with a full refund or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course.

Should a candidate wish to cancel/defer their registration of a course, notification must be received in writing to info@ciarbcaribbean.org. Deferral charges apply. Please refer to the Fee Terms and Conditions for full details.

What is my next step when I complete the course?
