

The ICC Rules 2026 in Practice: Assessing Early Impact and Exploring Emerging Trends in International Arbitration

13 October | 17:30 – 21:00 GMT+1

Fladgate LLP, 16 Great Queen Street, London, WC2B 5DG

Join Fladgate and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators London Branch for an evening seminar on the ICC Rules 2026 and their practical impact. Following the rules entry into force on 1 June 2026. Our speakers will discuss how the rules are working in practice and what to look out for.

They will also share their insights into other related emerging trends in international arbitration.

Welcome remarks will be delivered by Paul Kinninmont FCIArb, Partner at Freeths and Chair of the Ciarb London Branch.

The discussion will be chaired by Tope Adeyemi FCIArb, Barrister and Arbitrator, 33 Bedford Row.

Closing remarks will be delivered by Joel Seager, Partner at Fladgate. Refreshments and networking following the Panel discussion.

Speakers

- Colleen Parker Bacquet, Counsel, ICC
- Edwin Glasgow KC, Barrister and Arbitrator, 39 Essex Street Chambers
- Thomas Karalis MCIArb, Partner, Fladgate
- Hayk Kupelyants, Assistant Professor at King's College London, Arbitrator and ICC Court Member

Registration

To book your place, register here or scan the QR code

