FREDERICO SINGARAJAH FCIArb

Candidate for the CIArb Board of Trustees

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE. A RECORD OF BUILDING. A COMMITMENT TO MEMBERS.

CIArb has been part of my professional life for many years. I was one of the founding members of the Brazil Branch, later served on the London Branch Committee, and have contributed to CIArb's education work, including designing and delivering the Advocacy for International Arbitration course with CIArb HQ.

My practice is now exclusively international arbitration, as counsel and arbitrator, including as tribunal chair. But my involvement in arbitration has always extended beyond my own practice.

I am a founder and Director of London Arbitration Week, founded Lex Anglo-Brasil, and at Gray's Inn founded and direct its arbitration course and coach its Vis Moot team. I am also a Vice-Chair of the International Committee of the Bar Council of England and Wales.

These experiences have convinced me that the strength of an international organisation lies not simply in its reach, but in how effectively it connects its members and creates opportunities for them.

IF ELECTED, I WILL FOCUS ON THREE THINGS:

A MORE CONNECTED CIArb
Greater collaboration between Branches and regions, sharing expertise, initiatives and opportunities across borders.

REAL MEMBER VALUE
More meaningful opportunities for members to participate, teach, speak, publish, develop their networks and access opportunities that can lead to appointments.

INVESTING IN THE NEXT GENERATION
Practical education, advocacy training, mentoring and clearer pathways for emerging practitioners to become active members of the international dispute resolution community.

Having experienced CIArb from the perspective of two very different Branches, as an educator and as an international arbitration practitioner, I would bring to the Board a genuinely international outlook and a commitment to turning ideas into practical initiatives for members.

I would be honoured to have your support.
