Welcome letter

Dear Candidates,

Fast track your career in arbitration with Ciarb's Global Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration (Virtual).

You will benefit from learning from internationally recognised experts in the field and gain insight into how to win appointments with major arbitral institutions through the Institutional Round Table.

There will also be a session on AI in Arbitration that explores the role of AI in the arbitral process and the relevance of transparency in the use of AI in arbitrations.

On passing the Practice and Procedure examination and the Award Writing examination, you will receive a Diploma of International Commercial Arbitration from Ciarb. You will then be able to apply to become a Ciarb Fellow.

I encourage you to join us on this exciting learning opportunity.

Dr. Crina Baltag FCIArb
Diploma Director

"I did this Diploma specifically because it's virtual, and the convenience factor is just unbeatable. I currently practice in the United States, so being able to get into the international field and meet arbitrators and staff from Ciarb's programme was a blessing. I also travel a lot, so being able to do the Diploma from anywhere in the world was extremely convenient."

Stuthi Balaji

The Global Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration (Virtual) was a unique opportunity to learn from distinguished tutors and connect with peers from various professional backgrounds and legal jurisdictions. This diversity not only enriched our discussions but also deepened my understanding of the intricacies and complexities of international arbitration. The virtual format provided a flexible and cost-effective alternative to in-person sessions. This Diploma is an ideal choice if you're eager to navigate the global landscape of international dispute resolution and elevate your expertise in this dynamic field.

Samuel Muthomi Gichunge FCIArb

Meet the Diploma's Director

Dr. Crina Baltag FCIArb is a globally recognised arbitration and dispute resolution practitioner.

She is also an attorney at law and an academic with over 20 years of extensive practice in international dispute resolution, private, and public international law.

Crina has been appointed as presiding, sole and co-arbitrator in numerous arbitrations under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC Arbitration Institute), the Finland Arbitration Institute (FAI), Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC), and the Center for Arbitration and Mediation of the Chamber of Commerce Brazil-Canada (CAM-CCBC).

She has acted as expert and counsel in various international commercial and investment arbitrations. She has also practiced as counsel, specialising in commercial and disputes, focusing on construction, energy and natural resources projects, financial transactions, intellectual property, and foreign investments.

Crina is the managing editor of Kluwer Arbitration Blog, and an Associate Professor in International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution at Queen Mary University of London.

Duties and powers of the arbitral tribunal. Liability of arbitrators.

Session 2:

Role of tribunal secretaries.

Session 3:

Commencement of arbitration, request for arbitration and answer, terms of reference/appointment.

Session 4:

Managing the arbitration process: communications, preliminary meetings, interlocutory matters. Jurisdiction and admissibility.

Session 5:

Interactive workshop: Drafting Procedural Order Number 1.

Diploma assessment

Part 1 Assessment: Law, Practice and Procedure of International Commercial Arbitration

You will submit two assignments:
a dissertation proposal (up to 300 words) on an arbitration topic, and a final dissertation (4,000 words)
two months later.

The final dissertation is due by 31 May 2026 (18.00 GMT +1) and is worth 80%
of the overall mark. Candidates need to obtain 55% on each assignment to pass.

If you fail any assessments, you will have to retake the assessment. Any failure to submit an assessment will also result in a fail.

Part 2 Assessment: Law of Obligations

Candidates are required to demonstrate expertise on the common law and civil law of contract tort.
Candidates must pass a multiple-choice online exemption test before commencing to the final assessment.

Candidates will be given a reference workbook and a mock assessment before taking the test. Candidates will have 90 minutes to take the test, and the pass mark is 70%. The deadline is 30 July 2026.

Ciarb Fellows do not need to complete the exemption test.

Part 3 Assessment: Evidence and Award Writing of International Arbitration

Candidates are required to submit an award.

The assessment is split into two stages.

Stage one:

The documents in the case are released 10 days before the assessment start date. They are sufficient to allow candidates to review the nature of the case and the likely legal problems.

Candidates should consider the recitals they intend to include and the relevant law.

Stage two:

This is the equivalent of the hearing stage and includes an extract from the candidate's notebook.

This records the oral evidence and arguments the arbitrator has heard, as well as any other relevant documents.

From the evidence, candidates must make their findings of fact. Different candidates will no doubt make different findings.

When candidates have made their findings of fact, they can write the award. It must be a final award that reflects the issues they decide.

Stage two is released at 12:00 GMT +1 on 15 August 2026, the assessment start date.

Stage two will be available for five days from the assessment start date. Within the five days, candidates have 48 consecutive hours from the time they access the stage two documents to submit the award.

For the arbitral award, word count is 10,000 words maximum.

Candidates will be marked on technical and judicial merit:

Technical merit:

counts as 40% towards the overall mark.

Judicial merit:

counts as 60% towards the overall mark.

Candidates must achieve 70% in both technical and judicial merit and 70% overall to pass this assessment. The detailed elements of each technical and judicial merits will be made available with stage one.

Results are sent to candidates 12 weeks from the deadline date of the submission.
