Connect with international dispute resolvers at Ciarb Global Conference 2025

Ciarb Global Conference 2025 will take place from Wednesday 29 to Thursday 30 October 2025 in Doha, Qatar at five-star luxury hotel The Ritz-Carlton, Doha.

The 1.5-day Conference opens on Wednesday afternoon with Ciarb's unmissable Alexander Lecture, delivered by Professor Dr Mohamed Abdel Wahab C.Arb FCIArb, followed by an evening reception.

On Thursday, delegates can expect a full day packed with thought-provoking discussions, inspiring seminars, and unparalleled networking opportunities followed by light refreshments.

Co-hosted with Ciarb Qatar Branch, Ciarb Global Conference 2025 is open to members and non-members, from a-class practitioners to aspiring alternative dispute resolution (ADR) professionals.

We expect hundreds of attendees from Ciarb's global community to attend, including government officials and the judiciary, to explore the hot topics in ADR, with deep dives into the complex themes that drive thought leadership.

The Conference programme committee is led by our 2025 President and Alexander Lecture speaker, Professor Dr Mohamed Abdel Wahab C.Arb FCIArb.

More about the Conference, programme and full list of the organising committee members can be found here:

About Ciarb

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Ciarb) is an independent, charitable membership body that is incorporated by Royal Charter. Established in 1915 in London, UK, our inclusive membership spans diverse geographies, backgrounds and professional disciplines including arbitration, mediation, and adjudication. We have over 19,000 members across the globe. All with one thing in common – a desire to advance effective dispute resolution.

Ciarb offers training, including our globally recognised Diplomas, and a year-round calendar of exciting events, ongoing learning, webinars, as well as our much-anticipated Lectures. We leverage our collective expertise to enable the development and use of effective dispute resolution globally. We do this through research and insights, and by partnering with organisations and policy-makers.

The Ciarb Qatar Branch has been actively operating in Qatar since 2016, organising two major local conferences, both attended by prominent Qatari and regional Government officials.

The most recent conference included the participation of the President of the Investment Court. Ciarb Qatar collaborates closely with the Ministry of Justice and is hosted by the Qatar International Court (QICDRC).
