

Ciarb Journal Submission Policy on the use of Artificial Intelligence

Disclosure Form

1. Full name of Author.

2. Email address.

3. Title of submission.

4. I affirm and attest that the following AI processes have been used to create the submission (check only those that apply)

- ☐ Legal research of a specific legal issue.
- ☐ Content testing of a finished draft.
- ☐ Polishing grammar and writing style.
- ☐ Translating text from a language other than English, where the accuracy of such translation has been independently verified by the author, as indicated in a footnote.
- ☐ Other.

5. If you chose "other" for the above question, please provide details of all AI processes used to create the submission.

6. I affirm and attest that AI has not been used on the following:

- ☐ The ideation or initial identification of any topic.
- ☐ The initial structuring or drafting of a submission.
- ☐ Any translation of text from a foreign language that has not been independently verified as accurate by the author.
- ☐ Any task that may result in a breach of confidentiality.
- ☐ Any task that may call into question the ability of the author to grant a license of copyright to the journal.
- ☐ Any task that may contravene any applicable national, regional or international law or rules of professional conduct.

7. I understand that:

- ☐ I remain ultimately responsible and accountable for the quality, integrity, and accuracy of the content of my submission, including any content resulting from the use of AI.
- ☐ I may be contacted by the editorial team and asked to provide further information if any questions arise during the review process about the use of AI during the research or drafting of this article.
- ☐ All submissions published in the Ciarb Journal include information in a starred footnote about the extent to which AI has been used by the author(s) during the research and drafting stages.

8. Signature.
